"The Players" Present Laugh Producer Tomorrow Night

"The Players," tomorrow night will present at the local Opera House what well known and generally liked farce-comedy, "The Brivion Burglary," which has met with such great success wherever it has been produced, and is sure to be well received by the people of Clareisholm, when in the hands of Guy Harrington, Miss MacAlister and the balance of the talented company.

Mr. Harrington will be seen in the role of Septimus Pontifex, the young husband, who, after yielding to temptation, spends an evening out with his young friend, Dick Giggles, and to cover up his deceit, lies to his young wife. His maid and his father-in-law happen to see on bicycle riding in the neighborhood of Brivion, where he spent the evening, and get into trouble with the authorities for not having lights on their wheels, and the police track them to Pontifex's home, where they find that Septimus Pontifex and his friend were also out at Brivion, and immediately accuse them of a robbery which has been committed. Septimus had brought home a picture of some young ladies whom he had met at Brivion, and when the maid finds this she sees enough in it to make him come over her wiles, and in a wild way blackmail him into defending her.

The lies and misunderstandings continue to heap up until one wonders if the poor unfortunate man are ever going to extricate themselves from the mess they have gotten into, but a way is gradually conceived by Septimus and Giggles, and they manage to escape with whole skins, laying all the blame on the poor father-in-law.

Mr. Johnston and his Company come here direct from Calgary where they have been playing all winter at the Sherman Grand, and they will spare no pains to make this production just as successful here as it has been in Calgary. It has been said that they have succeeded admirably in producing this play with such skill as to leave not the slightest room for criticism.

Head of Methodist Church in Canada Speaks Here

The visit to our town of the Rev. S. D. Chown, D. D., on Sunday last was a red letter day in the history of the Methodist church here. The Rev. Dr. Chown is known as the "great man today in Canadian Christianity" and those who took advantage of the privilege extended to them on Sunday of hearing Dr. Chown have source of inspiration and profit.

At the morning service, Dr. Chown took for his subject "Holiness Beyond Thine House" and he preached a very forceful and timely sermon on the old doctrine of Holiness. He put his ideas in such simple terms, terms that the mystery which has so long been associated with the idea of Holiness was dispelled. Dr. Chown tried to prove, and succeeded admirably, that Holiness just simply meant the putting of the whole "self" into God's side.

At the evening service, Dr. Chown took advantage of the situation of Canada today with relation to the liquor traffic, and gave an address on "Christian Patriotism," and made special reference to the pending struggle between the forces of Prohibition and the liquor traffic, his address being given in part as follows:

"The Canadian enforcement of the liquor laws is intolerably brutal. There is no fitness whatever between the penalty and the crime."

He hereby assailed the liquor traffickers for crawling under the cloak of patriotism, at one point exclaimed, "It really makes my blood boil when I see the Union Jack, the emblem of liberty prostituted by being displayed in these hell holes of slavery."

The arraignment of the manner in which the Canadian law was being enforced came after the relation of an incident where a man subscribing only 25 cents to his family's maintenance in six weeks, while he was bringing the substance money, was further penalized by the court to the extent of $30 and costs. "Does that help his wife and family, to help to keep him away from liquor?" asked Dr. Chown.

He declared he was positive that the province would go dry in the coming July.

"Wherever I go," he said, "I find the indications that you are going to bring in a majority that will stamp out this get at evil in this province."

Taking the traffic generally he asserted that the war was bringing in a new era of usefulness, an era when an aristocracy of service and sacrifice, instead of land, of tradition and of money would prevail. It was giving rise to a comprehension of new emergencies. Sentiment had completely changed in the last six months noticeably so in respect to the liquor traffic. He condemned the liquor sellers particularly upon moral grounds. They simply took advantage of the patriotism of the men when elected their temporary war successes, to increase their own coffers and deplete the pockets of the others.

While Canada sought to compel the Empire by providing soldiers, the liquor men sought to debilitate the soldiers, for all great military as well as scientific men, had agreed that intoxicants were no good for the soldier. "We should bow our heads in shame," he declared, "when we consider that so many of our people were returned from Salisbury Plain because they were so unfit for service through drink. We spend our money on these men, on equipment, on transportation. We thought we were sending them as soldiers—not asots. I wonder we are so easy, or why our governments should permit itself to be so trifled with."

He made an estimate that the money spent in Canada last year in drink, would enable the country to keep an army of 100,000 men, costing $1,000 each to support, in the field. The drink bill for Canada he said was $103,047,129, which worked out at $200,000 men, if it cost $515 per man for support, or 100,000 men on the other basis, if Canada cut out its drinking, he considered, it could permanently maintain this army without feeling any more drain than it felt at the present moment.

In closing he described the liquor traffic as the verminous appendix in the body politic, which he considered should be operated upon. After the address four new members were received into the church, and extended the right hand of fellowship by the pastor and the Rev. Dr. Chown.

A DOLLAR BILL

A farmer went to town to spend Sunday's third earned dough. And when he came home he went to the further world to go.

And in a merry jest, just to show his printing skill, He printed his initials on a brand new dollar bill.

He spent that dollar that same day, Down in the village store.

He thought it was gone forever then, And he'd see it no more.

But he'd before the year rolled by, One day he went to fill

A neighbor's order and received That same one dollar bill.

Once more he spent that dollar bill In his own neighborhood.

When it would do himself and friend The most amount of good.

Four times in two years it came back, As some bad pennies will.

And each time he'd go out and spend This marked one-dollar bill.

Had he been wise that dollar might, Be in his town today.

But just two years ago 'tis said He sent it home.

He sent it home, for 'twas a foreign country, For 'twas to a foreign country

He sent his dollar bill. No more will that marked dollar bill.

Come into the farmer's hands, And forevermore will help to pay The taxes on his lands.

He put it where it never came To work of life fulfill.

He brought about the living death Of that one dollar bill.

Epworth League Holds Interesting Meeting

An exceptionally splendid meeting of the Epworth League was held in the Methodist church, Monday night, when J. C. Hooper, instructor of elementary science, at the Agricultural School here gave a lecture on "Beautifying the Home," making special reference to plants, trees and flowers. The lecture was illustrated by numerous lantern slides which were fully explained by the lecturer. Preparatory to the views being thrown on the screen Mr. Hooper gave an interesting talk on the value of windbreaks, the kind of trees, etc., and the necessity of planting them in this way to press home the fact that our farm houses could, by taking more interest in nature around us, and the more so at our disposal be made much more beautiful, and hence more attractive and valuable, than is at present the case in the majority of our Alberta farm houses.

A trio was well rendered by the Misses Solv and Mrs. Ringrose and was much appreciated by the audience. Miss Harrison and Miss Margaret Foster also added to the evening's pleasure by the rendition of a piano-forte, which the president, Mr. Longman manipulated the instrument. Altogether a very enjoyable and instructive meeting was held.

AGRICULTURAL CONFERENCE

Twenty million men are under arms in Europe and as "armies fight on their stomachs" the problem which confronts the allies of seeing that the belts which circle the stomachs of the men fighting under their colors is kept tight is a most serious one. In addition there are the wires and children of the soldiers and sailors, the industrial workers, the unfortunate Belgians—who have lost everything but their appetites—all these things to be fed.

With millions of men from the farms now in the ranks, where is the deficiency in food production to come from?

Patriotism and production go hand in hand and to show them in their proper and direct relation to the people of the west the department of agriculture at Ottawa is arranging for a series of agricultural conferences in Alberta. These are to be addressed by prominent speakers and they will meet Stately on the afternoon of March 16, at 4 o'clock, and hold a conference with the farmers, stockmen and business men of this section.

Appropriate addresses they will give particulars of the food needs of the allied nations and of the date and opportunity of supplying it which lies within the grasp of the people of this province.

Alberta's contribution to the arms of the allies is one to be proud of, and of this district was not behind when the call to arms was sounded. Our boys and their brothers in arms are depending on those who remained at home to at least see that there was an ample food supply on which to carry the campaign to its ultimately successful conclusion.

The conferences which are to be held here and in other places are to bring home to the people the empire's need and show how they can do their part. It is not communitarian patriotism to say that it is good business as well. There is a need will be a splendid market for all our grains.

It is not surprising that the pork is increasing, all farm produce is selling well.

We would suggest that the people of this section should turn out in large numbers to hear the speakers and ask them questions. If they do it can confidently be predicted they will learn a great deal on the practical and business side of their duty and economic opportunity in war time.

The boys speak well of the hospitality shown by the players, and the town of Clareisholm in general.

This is the first defeat this season of the local boys, and they should be commended on the games they have played this winter.

The Review hereby makes the first announcement of the provincial dairy competition held under the auspices of the Clareisholm School of Agriculture.

This competition started April 1914 and was closed in January 1915, running about six months. No entrance fee was charged, farmers weighed morning and evening milkings, and an inspector from the school visited at least once in six weeks to weigh and test the milk.

All the prizes given are pure bred stock distributed as follows:

First, yearling heifer, second, heifer eight months old; third, heifer over four months; fourth, heifer calf; fifth, pair of pure bred pigs under four months; sixth, pair of purchased pigs under four months; seventh, pen of poultry, four birds; eighth, pen of poultry, six birds; ninth, one pure bred pig over four months; tenth, one pure bred pig over four months.

No competitor is entitled to more than one prize, and as some names appear more than once the eleventh and twelfth place animals will bring prizes to their owners.

Local Hockey Team Meets Defeat at Gleichen

The following line-up of the local hockey team went to Gleichen last Thursday, where they were defeated by a score of eight to two.

The game was a fast one all right, and the score by no means indicates the play.

W. Harvey, who was a member of the Calgary Chinooks and well known as one of the fastest hockey players in Calgary was of great assistance to the Gleichen boys as was Helmer, who plays goal for the Chinooks. The game was certainly a walk away for the opposing team, the first goal being made in thirty seconds and their being four scores made in the first five minutes, and it looked as though there would be no game. However the Clareisholm boys took courage and played a very hard and fast game right up until time was called.

Fifty Years of Progress

Union Bank Closes Successful Year
 Net Profit $712,000.00.
 Gains in Public Deposits, Current Loans, Net Circulation and Total Assets

The shareholders of the Union Bank of Canada who attended the annual meeting held in Winnipeg on the 6th of January, had no reason to feel disappointed over the report presented to them. The record showed that a half century of careful business had resulted in the building up of a strong reserve, the accumulation of assets totalling over $1,500,000,000, and in the establishing of the bank in a leading position among the banking institutions of the country.

The increase of $1,500,000,000 in net assets is rather considerable, and indicates that the bank has been doing well on the other hand in catering to the business needs of the communities in which branches are located. At the same time, the bank has been able to maintain an unusually large proportion of its assets in quickly available form.

The bank's net profit for the year was $712,000.00, a gain of $12,000.00 over the previous year. This increase of $12,000.00 was due to the fact that the bank's net profit for the year was $712,000.00, a gain of $12,000.00 over the previous year.

Real Work is Coming

The Allied Commanders are Bidding Their Time
 The lack of stirring battle on the European fields at the present stage is attributed by British commentators to the determination of the allied commanders to content themselves with the strategic operations until the projected ring of fire is considerably enlarged, and strong to strike a blow which they hope will prove decisive.

The British are of the opinion that the present operations are only preliminary to the final blow which will be struck in the west. It is of course a matter of time when this will be done, but it is in the hands of the allied commanders to determine when this will be done.

The opinion is expressed in some quarters, however, that the inactivity of more general movements will be on an earlier date than is generally supposed, although persons in close touch with the army believe that the real crisis will not be reached until the summer of 1918.

Russia is still sending enormous masses of men to within easy reach of the German lines, and the British are of the opinion that the present operations are only preliminary to the final blow which will be struck in the west.

The British are of the opinion that the present operations are only preliminary to the final blow which will be struck in the west. It is of course a matter of time when this will be done, but it is in the hands of the allied commanders to determine when this will be done.

The opinion is expressed in some quarters, however, that the inactivity of more general movements will be on an earlier date than is generally supposed, although persons in close touch with the army believe that the real crisis will not be reached until the summer of 1918.

Everybody understands in a general sort of way that it is better for the community at large, and in the long run better for the farming community if farmers develop all branches of their business instead of only one. But the farmer is not in most cases farming for the benefit of the community, or even for the future well-being of the farming industry. His ambition is to make a living for his family and to make it now. While therefore the prices paid for grain are out of proportion to the prices paid for live stock, only moderate success can be expected from efforts to persuade the farmer to feed grain to stock. Factories in Canada which ordinarily make farm implements and railway supplies are just now engaged in turning out shells for cannon. The reason is that there is a demand for farm implements and railroad supplies, and patriotism and immediate regard for dividends compel to urge the wisdom of manufacturing what is most required. Of course when the war ends the demand for shells will be over and now or later money and time will be spent re-adjusting business to its former channels. The farmer is a manufacturer of food, and it is not to be wondered if he too goes out of lines which are ordinarily profitable and safe, and concentrates on the production of what seems for a time to be most likely to bring returns, taking chances on being able to readjust his business when the conditions swing back to normal.

SON O' MINE

Do you hear the bugle calling,
Son o' mine?
Into line the boys are falling,
Son o' mine.
Your king and country need you,
And the voice of heaven pleads you,
Go at once where duty binds you,
Son o' mine.
You are brave and young and strong,
Son o' mine.
Do not hesitate too long,
Son o' mine.
If we're not on land or main,
Then our struggle will be vain.
And your name will bear a stain,
Son o' mine.
So arise and do your part,
Son o' mine.
For the country of your heart,
Son o' mine.
With our brave colonial sons
Take the field and mind the guns
'Gainst the hated, cursed Hun,
Son o' mine.

ANOTHER HOCKEY GAME

Claresholm can sure produce many champions and out of the ordinary in the way of stunts in winning a hockey match, since the large number of new points demonstrated in the game of the married men vs. single men of last week. The ladies displayed even a larger number of new ones at the local rink last evening when the feminine team of the town had a conflict with the ladies of the Agricultural school.

The score at the finish of the game stood one to nothing in favor of the town team, it should have been a tie and one nothing. Miss Shand fell in front of the goal just in time to stop the puck which Miss Frank had so gently carried all the way across the rink. And it had been possible to get the puck in the goal from behind, there might have been considerable more scores made.

Several times during the game the puck was out one side of the ice and the players at the other looking for it when it was discovered that it didn't happen to be around, then a searching expedition would start out and eventually locate the lost article.

As is indicated by the score the game was very evenly contested to say the least.

The line up for the two teams is as follows:
Agri. School Town
Miss Coverdale goal Miss Braren

Miss Macleod Miss Shand
Miss Schock viewpoint Miss Miller
Miss Elvrum rover Miss Gaudin
Miss Snyder centre Miss Moffatt
Miss Amundson r. wing Miss Weiss
Miss Frank l. wing Mrs. Durning

The evening was mostly spent in parlor games, social chat etc. A dainty lunch was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. After which the participants of a most pleasant evening's entertainment dispersed, shortly before midnight.

The Young People's Society Entertained

About forty of the members and friends of the Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church were very recently entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. McNicol on Tuesday evening.

The evening was mostly spent in parlor games, social chat etc. A dainty lunch was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. After which the participants of a most pleasant evening's entertainment dispersed, shortly before midnight.

Explains Decision of Last Night

To the Editor of the Claresholm Review.
Dear Sir:—

In reference to the hockey game between the ladies of the town on the one hand and those of the college on the other it seems that a number of persons think my decision with reference to the goal scored by the town unfair, inasmuch as the puck did not reach the net. Let me explain to the uninitiated that all that is necessary in order to score a goal is for the puck to cross an imaginary line drawn between the goal posts. In this particular instance the goal-keeper was standing inside the goal posts, and the puck passed between her feet before stopping. The fact that the goal-keeper accepted my advice and ever afterwards stood in her proper place in front of the goal posts ought to be satisfactory proof of an unbiased decision. The margin of difference between what constitutes a goal and what actually happened was too great for any question.

I am yours,
P. H. McNicol,
Goal Judge.

Yes, There Is MONEY In EGGS

Have you ever stopped to think that a hen will lay 150 eggs a year. Certified statistics tell us that it costs 15c a dozen to produce eggs. People in the business say that fresh eggs average 15c a dozen. This leaves a net profit of 30c a dozen. 30c on 150 eggs is $3.75, which you should make net profit on each hen. If you had 1000 hens it would be $3750 you should make net profit. If you are earning less than this amount per year, come to my office and let us talk the matter over. You can buy a model farm for $150 cash, the balance spread over a term of years. Model farms are all cleared—no stumps or stones to contend with. They are situated on the main line of the Canadian Northern Railroad, are connected with the city of Kamloops by a good automobile road, the Hydro-Electric Line of the city of Kamloops passes through the property which will supply light and power. Model farms are situated right on the bank of the North Thompson river, which supplies ample water for irrigation. Model farms are cleared farms. The price is only $150 an acre or $150 for five acres. $150 cash and balance spread over five years.

Fill out the coupon below and mail it to me at once, and I will send you further particulars.

INDIA IS LOYALLY FIGHTING FOR THE CAUSE OF RIGHT AND JUSTICE

DEMONSTRATE ATTACHMENT TO THE THRONE

Viceroy Announces that the Vast Empire has already sent Two Hundred Thousand Soldiers to Fight for the Allies in the War in Europe

A special report from Delhi, says: His Excellency Lord Hardinge, the viceroy, delivered a stirring speech before the viceroyal council on the participation of the empire in the war. The gathering of the council chamber was an listened to with the most intense interest. Lord Hardinge, at the outset, expressed regret at the participation of Turkey in the European conflict, as an ally of Germany, and reviewed the events leading up to that event.

His excellency proceeded: "I am well aware that many of the Indian states are not yet ready to take the oath to avert the danger of the world. But the viceroy turned a deaf ear to all this. It is a criticism of the viceroy that he is a man of no faith in the ranks of the British and Indian armies, and a single Muslim soldier in the German ranks."

"It is no exaggeration to say that since Prussia's military clinic, under Germany's compulsion, betrayed the interests of Islam, and the viceroy, in government, in submitting to it, has abdicated" the sovereignty and the right to rule. "The viceroy, in government, in submitting to it, has abdicated" the sovereignty and the right to rule. "The viceroy, in government, in submitting to it, has abdicated" the sovereignty and the right to rule.

New Projectile To Create Havoc

British Inventor Has Created Flame Projector in Interesting Fashion

The military correspondent of the Standard writes: "We have so often heard of inventions that will make war impossible, that we have almost come to believe that man and blood cannot be killed by any means. But now we have a new weapon, the flame projector, which will make war impossible. It is a new weapon, the flame projector, which will make war impossible. It is a new weapon, the flame projector, which will make war impossible."

"It is a new weapon, the flame projector, which will make war impossible. It is a new weapon, the flame projector, which will make war impossible. # Germany is on the Defensive

Allies Have Confidence in Their Unity of Purpose and Resources

The following interesting letter was written by a well-known London banker to a friend in Canada, and reflects the feeling prevalent in Great Britain, that there will be no end to the German offensive in the East.

"Now with regard to the War. I saw much in the light of the fact that it is up. If it were a football the final result would be that Germany would win. But the war is not a football. It is a war of attrition. The daily figures are not only not putting more energy into the war, but they are putting more energy into the war. The daily figures are not only not putting more energy into the war, but they are putting more energy into the war."

"On a previous occasion I announced that India would send forces of over 200,000. Since then we have heard much more, thanks to the energy and the resources of the British Empire. The British Empire is not only sending forces, but it is sending resources. The British Empire is not only sending forces, but it is sending resources."

"We are all proud of our military forces and of their gallantry. The British Empire is not only sending forces, but it is sending resources. The British Empire is not only sending forces, but it is sending resources. The British Empire is not only sending forces, but it is sending resources."

For World Power

Candid German Journalist Tells Why Germany Went to War

Maximilian Harden, the famous German journalist, makes no effort to conceal Germany's real motives in the war. He writes in the New York Review, a translation of the German journal, "The New York Times," that the German government has been driven to war by the desire to become a world power.

"We are waging this war," he says, "because we want to become a world power. We want to become a world power. We want to become a world power. We want to become a world power. We want to become a world power."

"We are waging this war," he says, "because we want to become a world power. We want to become a world power. We want to become a world power. We want to become a world power. We want to become a world power."

First Lord of the Admiralty

Anecdotes That Throw Light on Character of Lord Fisher

There are some good stories of Lord Fisher, recently appointed First Lord of the British Admiralty.

"One day, when Lord Fisher was in the Admiralty, he was asked to give a speech. He said: 'I am not a speaker. I am a doer. I am not a speaker. I am a doer. I am not a speaker. I am a doer.'

"Another story of Lord Fisher is that he was once asked to give a speech. He said: 'I am not a speaker. I am a doer. I am not a speaker. I am a doer. I am not a speaker. I am a doer.'

"Lord Fisher was once asked to give a speech. He said: 'I am not a speaker. I am a doer. I am not a speaker. I am a doer. I am not a speaker. I am a doer.'

HOPELESS TASK OF GERMAN CAVALRY

THEY CAN POSTPONE FINAL DECREE

Widespread Belief is that if Teutons were to Dominate Europe, then Peace and Security to all Nations would Vanish from the Earth, and Militarism would hold sway

A recent issue of the Manchester Guardian contained the following extract from the New York Times: "The only possible ending of the war is a thorough defeat of Germany."

"The only possible ending of the war is a thorough defeat of Germany. The only possible ending of the war is a thorough defeat of Germany. The only possible ending of the war is a thorough defeat of Germany."

Who Doesn't Thirst for Them?

One man thirsts for Gold—one for Love.
These gripping human emotions make a cringing, loathsome beast of one man—a master, a genius and a hero of the other.

But the girl, Ruth Gallon. What of her?

Hers was the most nerve-racking, vivid, thrilling experience of all. It was she who was practically buried alive—threatened on every side with certain death by rushing water, with fire, falling rocks, yet it was she who found the key to perfect happiness.

This key is the MASTER KEY—the one key in all the world that every human seeks. You can learn of this supreme happiness by seeing the sublime MASTER KEY serial now running at the

Have you been getting poor on the money you "Saved" by using Cheap Printing?

THE business man who seeks cheapness as the FIRST consideration in buying his Printing, never really pays much attention to other elements in the transaction—except, perhaps, the matter of getting it done quickly.

The money SAVED by buying CHEAP printing is money on which you have paid an absolutely ruinous premium.

It will make you poor if you persist in saving enough of it.

Select your printer at least as carefully as you would select your tailor or clothier—for while these two have something to do with your business success, your printer has a great deal to do with it.

Before you "tie up" to him, make him show you his value to you. If he's the the right sort of printer, he can.

Let us help you plan your printed matter. We can be of real service to you.

PATRIOTISM AND PRODUCTION

In the British Isles military preparations has been imperfect because development has proceeded along the paths of peace. The instinct of the British people is against militarism, and great standing armies are not viewed with favor.

But in the British Isles and her self governing dominions alone there are at least sixty millions of people, a population nearly equal to that of Germany. If our preparation for the struggle was insignificant compared with that of Germany, let us not forget that her resources are insignificant compared with those of this Empire. There are many things that count besides armed forces in the field. In the organization of modern war all the nation's resources must be reckoned with. Consider those of Canada which even during the coming war can supply food products to an almost unlimited extent.

The unity of purpose inspiring the British dominions and their participation in this war upon so vast a scale has amazed the Prussian war lords. Also it has shattered their confident belief that the military resources of these dominions were entirely negligible. There is but one way to deal effectively with the Prussian gospel of force and violence and the Prussian ideal of absolutism. It must be smashed utterly and completely.

The sooner that it is accomplished the better for the German people and for all the nations. Canada joins wholeheartedly in that great task. What has been done is known to all. What remains to be done shall be limited only by the need.

It is within the bounds of probability that the four free nations of the overseas dominions will have put into the fighting line 250,000 men if this war should continue for another year. That result, or even the results which have already been obtained, must mark a great epoch in the history of inter-imperial relations. There are children within sound of my voice who will see the overseas dominions surpass in wealth and population the British Isles; there are children playing in your streets who may see Canada alone attain that eminence.
